

You're Invited

Expert Discussion: American Rescue Plan

April 21, 10am PDT / 1pm EDT

Reserve your spot

The Department of Education recently announced that $122 billion of the American Rescue Plan will be allocated to help states safely reopen schools and address student needs raised by the pandemic.

Join us for a free panel discussion covering the details of this relief package. You'll gain advice from school leaders on supporting student engagement and safety with available funds and have a chance to ask your critical questions.

Save your seat

Ready to learn more about navigating K-12 federal funding guidelines? Visit our Federal Funding Resource Hub for information, best practices, and details about the American Rescue Plan, as well as SEL and mental health resources.

Unsubscribe Manage preferences

View in browser